Important:

1. Privately administered standardized tests or evaluations are not accepted in the Advanced Study Academies admissions process.
2. It is the responsibility of the parent/guardian to notify the admissions office if your child requires testing accommodations as documented on a current IEP or IAP. No accommodations for admissions testing can be provided unless they are specified on the testing accommodations page on a current IEP or IAP which must be submitted at the time of application.
3. Attendance zones have been created for all Advanced Study Academies. An applicant is expected to attend the school in his/her attendance zone.
4. An applicant may list schools outside of his/her attendance zone as a first and second requested choice. However, a student may only attend a school outside of his/her attendance zone if a vacancy exists at the school after all qualified students applying from within the attendance zone are placed. Transfers will be granted only during the first five days of the school year. Transfers are valid until the terminal grade at the school providing all academic standards are maintained.
5. Transportation will not be provided by the school system to any student attending an academy outside the attendance zone of their residence.
6. Applications will be screened at the time of application. If the student meets eligibility criteria, an approved for testing letter including date, time, and location of admissions testing will be given to the applicant at that time.
7. All applications deemed ineligible for testing will be screened by a three person committee of central office administrators. Families of ineligible applicants will only be contacted if the committee reverses the initial ineligible decision.
8. Information on an appeals process will also be issued at the time of application.
9. A three person committee will consider all appeals at the Application Submission and Screening Phase.
10. Students who satisfy all criteria in the Application Submission and Application Screening Phase will be tested for possible admission into an Advanced Study Academy.
11. A "qualifying score" on the admissions test is defined as any composite score of 85 or higher. Admission is dependent upon capacity and attendance zone
12. All deadlines in the ASA admissions process are firm.

THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF THIS APPLICATION IS October 20, 2017 AT 12:00 NOON.
