RE: First Readings from the November 15, 2018 JPSB Regular School Board Meeting

First Reading authored by Ms. Denapolis-Bosarge

First Reading authored by Ms. Denapolis-Bosarge: Move to settle the Amzie Pigott case under terms to be discussed in executive session next month.

First Reading authored by Ms. Bourgeois

First Reading authored by Ms. Bourgeois: With the master strategic facilities plan approval that recommends enhanced career tech at Ehret and Bonnabel as well as a stand-alone career tech center, move that the administration establish a committee on Career Tech Curriculum. The committee that would include but not limited to JPPSS administration including curriculum and CTE, school-based CTE staff, leadership of JEDCO, Jeff Chamber of Commerce, JBC, WBIA, Delgado, UNO, Spanish COC, LADOE and at least 2 major Jefferson Parish employers and 2 small businesses. If approved the committee would start its work in January with a report to the JPPSS school board by April 15, 2019.

First Reading authored by Ms. Kuhn

First Reading authored by Ms. Kuhn: Move that the Jefferson Parish School Board establishes six advisory committees, chaired and organized by the Superintendent or by a designee of the Superintendent, in order to obtain input on current and proposed policies, to hear concerns and ideas, and to better represent its constituents. These six councils will be titled the Student Advisory council, the Parent Advisory council, the Teacher Advisory Council, the School Leader Advisory council, the English-Language Learner Advisory council, and the Special Education Advisory Council.

Over the next month I will send the specifics of who it will consist of and what their functions will be.
